Within this wonderful collection of destinations, you'll find classic Norwegian scenery. From the quaint villages of Flåm and Olden you can discover dramatic valleys, glaciers and waterfalls, while gliding along enchanting, UNESCO-listed Nærøyfjord – only accessible to smaller ships like Black Watch – will unveil breathtaking sights.

Your cruise will begin with two relaxing days at sea, passing the fascinating basalt columns of Fingal's Cave en route to your first destination, Olden. This charming fjord village is your gateway to a host of natural wonders, from the Briksdal Glacier to Lovatnet Lake. Be sure to witness the sloping green mountainsides as you depart via Nordfjord.

The following day will be spent in Flåm, where you can marvel at the stunning scenery from the Stegastein Lookout. Alternatively, board the iconic Flåm Railway for an incredible journey through tunnels, over bridges and past thundering waterfalls. An evening of mesmerising scenic cruising follows as your ship diverts down Nærøyfjord. Each twist and turn gives the impression of heading towards a dead end. At just 250 metres wide at its narrowest point, it's only accessible to smaller ships like Black Watch and has been rated joint top in National Geographic's list of natural heritage sites worldwide.

Your final Norwegian call is the Hanseatic city of Bergen. There's time to explore the colourful Bryggen Wharf and to ride the funicular railway to the top of Mount Fløyen, all before heading home via the picturesque Shetland Islands.
