Old town and Kasbah, Tangier

In Lisbon see the Moorish Castelo de São Jorge; the Sé (Cathedral); Jeronimos Monastery; and the Gulbenkian, with its collection of paintings, sculpture, and Oriental porcelain.

Cádiz is arguably the oldest city in Europe. Sitting on a peninsula and almost entirely surrounded by water, it has a relaxed and laid-back atmosphere that encourages exploration. Discover the city's 18th century buildings; visit Jerez de la Frontera; or the whitewashed Andalusian village of Arcos de la Frontera. In Málaga visit the Picasso Museum in the remodelled Buenavista Palace, the Museum of Contemporary Art and the Gibralfaro Castle.

Tangier is a blend of cultures and enjoys a history as a popular choice for writers – William S Burroughs, Jack Kerouac and Tennessee Williams have all visited or resided in the city; follow in their footsteps by exploring the Medina with its Grand Mosque and the intriguing Kasbah.

From the ancient port of Gijón you can visit Oviedo and marvel at several medieval churches as well as its Cathedral, begun in 1388 and containing the royal Asturian tombs. Once a bastion of French Protestantism, La Rochelle is one of the best-preserved port towns in France, with handsome 18th century streets crowded round the impressive harbour of Vieux Port. Largely pedestrianised, this is a great place for shopping.
