Cozumel, Mexico

An overnight stay in Montego Bay allows time to climb Dunn's River Falls; raft along the Martha Brae River; or enjoy sampling rum at the Appleton Estate.

The two day stay in Havana permits an exploration of the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Habana Vieja, built by the Spanish in the 16th and 17th centuries. Amble along the Calle Obispo that links the Plaza de Armas with Parque Central; head to Capitolio Nacional; Casa de África; and Casa del Arabe; before indulging in an unforgettable evening at the Tropicana nightclub.

From Playa del Carmen head off to the superb Mayan ruins at Tulum; the vast city of Cobá; as well as incomparable Chichén Itzá. The Plaza del Sol in San Miguel, the only town in Cozumel, is great for local crafts; if shopping's not your thing, then head to the famous caverns of the spectacular Dos Ojos Cave System which provide an unforgettable glimpse of ocean architecture.

Belize is protected by the spectacular Mesoamerican Barrier Reef; the natural wonderland continues at the renowned Cockscomb Basin Wildlife Sanctuary and Jaguar Preserve; as well as the Crooked Tree Wildlife Sanctuary. There's also the chance to visit the manatee breeding grounds; Goff's Caye; and the Community Baboon Sanctuary. Alternatively see the Mayan Xunantunich archaeological site with its imposing pyramid, El Castillo. At Santo Tomas de Castillo on the Bahia de Amatique there are tours to the Mayan ruins at Quirigua; while at Roatán Island you can swim with stingrays and dolphins.

Puerto Limon lies on Costa Rica's lush Caribbean coast; take a tour to Tortuguero National Park, a network of jungle-lined canals and lagoons, home to crocodiles, caimans, monkeys, sloths and exotic birdlife; or an aerial tramway ride that skims Braulio Carrillo National Park. From the Victorian town of Port Antonio don't miss rafting along Jamaica's Rio Grande with its secreted waterfalls and astonishing bird life.
